

“As such, the EPP Group enshrines net neutrality as a policy objective that needs to be implemented at EU level. It is of crucial importance to provide a level playing field for all actors in the web. As such, it is a fundamental characteristic of the free and open Internet.”

http://stream.eppgroup.eu/Activities/docs/year2012/hearing_internet_en.pdf

“However, net neutrality is a red line, not only for our group but above all for citizens who have made their views clear and asked for a positive vote on the alternative amendment we tabled.”

<http://www.socialistsanddemocrats.eu/newsroom/sds-welcome-end-roaming-will-not-yield-net-neutrality>

“The internet must remain open and neutral and we need clear rules on how traffic is managed to ensure that there is no anti-competitive behaviour. A situation where certain large companies get preferential treatment for their content while smaller providers and educational services only have access to a 'second-class' internet is not in the public interest and I will certainly not accept any text that would permit this. The principle must be firmly enshrined law.”

E-mail received from Vicky Ford, ECR, 25 June 2015

“It is important that blocking and throttling will now be illegal. Liberals have tabled amendments to safeguard net neutrality and to define specialised services.”

<http://www.alde.eu/nc/plenary-session/plenary-details/article/parliament-votes-to-end-roaming-fees-and-safeguard-net-neutrality-42941/>

“What is important for us is clear, binding protection for net neutrality. That's what we wanted at the time of the vote and that's still what we want now. Anyone who wants to promote startups needs to limit market power and promote net neutrality. Support the "save the internet" campaign and put pressure on the Council to support these principles.”

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=UjUCf0Nvhfl>

“Thankfully, a majority of MEPs has seen sense today and voted to uphold the principle of net neutrality in the EU. The proposals by the Commission, which would essentially have given large providers the all-clear for discriminating against users as they see fit, have been revised.”

<http://www.greens-efa.eu/electronic-communications-12163.html>

“(…) I oppose and I will strongly oppose a conclusion of the negotiation which would not completely respect the European Parliament's vote on the abolition of roaming and on net neutrality.”

<http://www.dariotamburrano.it/inaccettabile-tentativo-di-uccidere-la-neutralita-della-rete-in-cambio-di-concessioni-sul-roaming/>